Community Support

Your support of the Price Hill Pacer benefits two community-based nonprofits: Santa Maria Community Services and Price Hill Will. These organizations have made many strides to better Greater Price Hill and its surrounding communities. All proceeds from the Price Hill Pacer will be donated to these organizations to continue to make our community stronger.

Santa Maria Community Services is a non-profit organization serving Cincinnati's Greater Price Hill by providing educational tools and resources to help build strong families, promote healthy residents, and foster neighborhood revitalization. Since 1897, Santa Maria has helped families help themselves. Santa Maria currently serves more than 3,000 individuals annually with support from the United Way of Greater Cincinnati and several other funding sources. For more information visit www.santamaria-cincy.org.

Price Hill Will is a non-profit community development corporation serving the neighborhoods of East, West and Lower Price Hill to create systemic change through physical impact, economic impact and social impact. Programs include community gardens, business district planning, residential/commercial real estate development, community programming, a 100-member youth orchestra, cultural events, and many others. For more information visit www.pricehillwill.org.

Thank you to our Price Hill Pacer Sponsors!
